PRIVATE SECRETARY MYSORE

The Palace, Mysore,
3rd November 1911.

My dear Sir,

I am directed to return the draft letter to the Residency about Major Foulkes' appointment and to say that His Highness approves of the draft as revised by you, the word "local" being omitted in regard to his allowance and no reference being made to his possible employment on Government work. I have made one verbal alteration in para 2 II as Rs.950/- is Major Foulkes' pay and does not include any allowances.

I am to ask that the application to the Residency for Major Foulkes' services may be treated as urgent.

Yours sincerely,

T. Ananda Row Esq., C.I.E.,

O R D E R:- No. 116 dated 28th January 1913

The Surgeon General is informed that the Government of India have sanctioned the transfer of Major T.H. Foulkes, I.M.S., to the Mysore State for employment as Durbar Physician and Surgeon on the following terms:-

(1) His engagement will be renewable from year to year, but if the relations between him and the Durbar prove mutually satisfactory, there is every probability of his being retained in -- Mysore service for not less than three years.

(11) His net monthly salary will be fixed at Rs. 950 (the pay of his present grade and rank) plus an allowance of Rs. 650 exclusive of pensionary and leave contribution which will be paid by the State under the usual rules. On promotion to a Lieutenant Colonelcy, however, he will receive a gross salary of Rs. 1950 i.e. an increase of Rs. 350 over the salary mentioned above.

(111) He will be allowed exchange compensation allowance — under the rules in force in British India.

(iv) His travelling allowance will be regulated by the -- British Indian Civil Service Regulations, his rank for purposes of travelling allowance being taken as that of his present appointment in British service.

(v) He will be given free furnished houses at Mysore and -- Bangalore.

(vi) He will be allowed to take private practice and given facility for hospital practice in the same way as a regular member of a hospital staff, so far as possible, without detriment to his legitimate duties.

2. With reference to the provisions of article 89 of the Civil Service Regulations, Major Foulkes will be seconded in his appointment of District Medical and Sanitary Officer, Vizagapatam, with — effect from the 1st June 1912.

3. The following notification will be published in the Fort St. George Gazette:-
